

U. S. Food Administration License No. G05559

Special Offerings

FOR THIS WEEK ONLY

That Are Truly Remarkable Values

We have looked over our stocks and picked out a few lines on which we can make you what are really sensationally low prices.

Wise Buyers Will Purchase Liberally.

Shop Early in the Day. You'll Avoid the Late Afternoon Crowds.

Hershey's Cocoa

One-Fifth Pound Cans

3 Cans For 14c

At this price your cost per pound figures slightly less than 25 cents. We are overstocked on this size, hence this remarkably low price.

SPECIAL THIS WEEK

BROWN BEAUTY BEANS

We call this particularly to the attention of boarding houses.

6 Cans for 63c

One Case (24 Cans) ... $2.50

Lenox Soap

11 Cakes for 50c

Safety Matches, 10c per Dozen

BUTTER

Our Sanitary Brand Red Carton

Per Lb. 50c

One trial will convince you that you are getting a fancy creamy butter. Price is no indication of quality; you'll agree that you are getting the best quality at the lowest price.

WIZARD Carpet Clean

Does away with the disagreeable clouds of dust when sweeping. Sprinkled on the floor before sweeping, it lays the dust, helps collect the dirt, brightens the colors of rugs and carpets. Makes floor coverings look like new; is absolutely free from injurious ingredients. Contains no salt or sand. Wizard Carpet Clean, in convenient cartons. Package 11c

Post Toasties, pkg., 12c | Kellogg's Corn Flakes, pkg., 12c

Pure Lard, Lb. 30c

Curtice Bros. Boned Chicken or Turkey Per Can, 50c

All Ready for Salads—No Waste

RITTER'S PORK and BEANS

Special This Week

3 Cans for 39c

CHEESE Best American One Lb. . . 32c 1-Lb. . . 17c 1-Lb. . . 9c

HEBE Per Can 10c Tall . . . 5c Per Can Small . . . 5c

Palm Olive Soap 3 Cakes for 29c

POTATOES 15-lb. Pk. for 55c One-half pk. . . 28c One-quarter pk. 15c

Here's a Fine Dessert All Ready to Serve

Needs no sugar—all are ripe Hawaiian Fruit. No. 2 Cans Gold Bar Pineapple 30c Per can

The above is the best grade canned. No. 2 Cans Gold Bar 25c No. 2 Cans Silver Bar 22c

Save the Fruits and Vegetables

Mason Jars Pints, doz. . . 75c Quarts, doz. . . 85c Jelly Glasses 1/2-Pint Size . . 29c 1/2-Pint size . . 32c

MILK

PET BRAND 5c and 11c BORDEN'S 5c and 11c CARNATION 5 1/2c and 12c CHALLENGE 14c EAGLE 17 1/2c

Corn Meal 12 Lb. Peck 60c

BRER RABBIT MOLASSES . . 11c

Green Label, Small Cans. An ideal sugar substitute for baking or cooking purposes. We've got to come to it—better get your can tomorrow.

CRISCO, 1 lb. 30c CRISCO, 1 1/2 lbs. . . . 45c CRISCO, 3 lbs. 88c CRISCO, 6 lbs. $1.75 MAZOLA OIL, can. . . . 35c WESSON OIL, can. . . . 40c SNOWDRIFT, 2-lb. can. . 62c SAWTAY, per can. . . . 35c SPOTLESS CLEANSER . . . 4 1/2c IVORY SOAP, small. . . . 6c STAR SOAP, 4 for. . . . 25c FELS-NAPHA 6c CRYSTAL WHITE SOAP. . 6c LUX 12c

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Wedding Guests to Arrive at the White House Today. French Mission to Australia Feted.

MEMBERS of the house party which the President and Mrs. Wilson will entertain for the wedding of their niece, Miss Alice Wilson, and the Rev. Isaac Stuart McElroy, tomorrow evening, are arriving at the White House today, and it is probable that they will all be assembled in time for the family dinner party which is on the program for this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Wilson, the President's brother and sister-in-law, with their daughter, the bride, will come from their home in Baltimore this afternoon. Other guests at the White House for the wedding will be the Rev. Dr. I. S. McElroy, of Columbus, Ga., and Mrs. McElroy, Mrs. Martin Crook, of Spartanburg, S. C., and Mrs. C. C. Crowell, of Columbus, Ga., the bridegroom; and Miss Elizabeth Perkins, of Muncie, Ind.

Miss Perkins, who was Miss Wilson's roommate at the Ward-Belmont College at Nashville, Tenn., and is her most intimate friend, will share with Mr. McElroy's best man, Prof. R. M. Turnbull, of the Union Theological Seminary, the distinction of being the only guests save members of the two families at the wedding. The bride will be given in marriage by her father and will have Mrs. Crook as matron of honor. The Rev. Dr. McElroy will perform the ceremony.

President Wilson this afternoon received Albert Meilin, minister of labor in the cabinet of President Poincaré of France, Gen. Paul Geraud Pau and the other members of the French mission to Australia, who are in Washington for a few days en route to their distant destination. Mr. Meilin is chief of the mission and General Pau its military representative.

Members of the mission are being much feted during their brief visit in Washington. This evening the French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand will give a dinner in compliment to Mr. Meilin and General Pau, and yesterday they lunched informally at the embassy, the Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand having a small company, including members of the embassy staff, to meet them.

Edouard de Billy, deputy high commissioner of France, entertained at dinner last evening at his residence in S Street in honor of Mr. Meilin and General Pau. The guests included the other members of the mission to Australia and members of the French civil and military missions in Washington.

Raymond T. Baker, director of the mint, and his bride, who was Mrs. McCadoo, are still in the West, arrived informally at the White House yesterday afternoon and had tea with the President and Mrs. Wilson. The little festivity took place immediately after the return of the President and Mrs. Wilson from Hog Island, where she stood sponsor for the first ship launched at the great new shipyard there.

Secretary Lansing on Motor Trip. The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing, accompanied by the Solicitor General and Mrs. John W. Davis, who have been their guests for a week or ten days, left Washington, N. Y., today for a motor trip through the Adirondacks and New England. They will go through the mountains over the Mohawk trail and will stop at Manchester, reaching New York the latter part of this week. Mr. Lansing will return to his desk at the State Department on August 15.

Secretary and Mrs. Lansing have been spending a three weeks' vacation at their home in Watertown and with Mrs. Lansing's mother, Mrs. John W. Foster, at Henderson Harbor, N. Y.

His Excellency, Tang Hua Ling, the distinguished Chinese statesman, who has been the guest of the Chinese Minister, Dr. Wellington Koo, for a week or ten days, will leave town this afternoon for a short stay in Philadelphia, after which he will go on to New York. The minister will have been at Edgewater, their place at Blue Ridge Summit, Pa., within a day or two to join Mrs. Koo and their children.

Last evening Dr. Koo and Mr. Tang were the honor guests at a dinner given by Breckinridge Long, the Third Assistant Secretary of State. The distinguished company to meet them included Champ Clark, Speaker of the House; Maj. Gen. George Benett, commandant of the Marine Corps; Vance McCormick, chairman of the War Trade Board; Thomas Beaumont Hohler, second counselor of the British embassy; E. T. Williams, John Gardner Coolidge, of Boston; Jerome D. Langfield and Major H. Seaver Jones.

The Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. McCadoo are still in the West, and it is not likely that they will be able to reach Washington in time for the marriage tomorrow of Mrs. McCadoo's cousin, Miss Alice Wilson, and the Rev. I. S. McElroy. They are expected at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., on Friday, and will probably be coming to Washington until some time later.

Going to York Harbor.

Mme. de Riano, wife of the Spanish ambassador, is leaving Washington tomorrow to spend some time with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Anderson, at York Harbor. She expects to stop at Newport for a day or two on her way North. The ambassador does not at present expect to be able to get away at all this summer.

Mrs. Newton D. Baker, wife of the Secretary of War, will pitch out the first ball at the Red Cross benefit game to be played at American League Park tomorrow afternoon between the nine of the Finance and Accounts Division of the quarter-master general's office and that of the United States Marines. The game will be called at 5:15. It is for the benefit of the fund to furnish a new home for the War Department Red Cross unit.

The Minister of Cuba and Mme. de Cespedes have as their guest at thelegation Countess Castell Salinas, who has come from New York for a stay of several weeks.

Mrs. James McDonald went to New York yesterday and is now in Southampton, L. I., where she will visit for two weeks before rejoining her son, Lieut. Arthur Campbell Bradley, stationed here.

Leaves Stubblefield Home.

Signor Giuseppe Bevoine, head of the Italian aviation mission in this country, has leased the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stubblefield, 2356 Massachusetts avenue, for the duration of the war. He will take possession tomorrow, and will have with him there some of the Italian officers and other members of the mission associated with him here. Mrs. Stubblefield and her young daughter, Miss Lolita Stubblefield, spent the months of June and July at Atlantic City, and then returned to their home here. They are leaving tomorrow for Asheville, N. C., to remain until September 15, when they will join Mr. Stubblefield in Birmingham, Ala., for the winter.

Join Summer Colony.

Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins is expected at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., shortly for a visit of several weeks. Georges Geoffrey, of the French high commission; H. E. York, of the British mission, and Henri Masot are also due to arrive at the Springs from Washington this week.

Brig. Gen. Cornelius Vanderbilt, U. S. A., who has been with his family at Beaulieu, Newport, has arrived in Washington.

Lindley M. Garrison, formerly Secretary of War, and Mrs. Garrison are at Hot Springs, Va., for a month's stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter, who have been at Edgewater, their place at Beverly Farms, Mass., since leaving Washington, are now in the West for a stay of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. R. Hitt are in New York and are stopping at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel.

Poster-Campbell Nuptials.

A wedding of interest to Washington which will take place today in Louisville, Ky., is that of Lieut. Addison Gardner Foster, U. S. R., and Miss Louise Campbell, of Louisville. Lieutenant Foster is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Gardner Foster, of St. Paul, Minn., and is well known in Washington as the nephew of Mrs. Richardson Gibson, and Mrs. F. J. H. von Engelken. He has visited here often.

Lieutenant Foster and his bride will take an apartment in Louisville, where he has been stationed for some time, and will remain there until he is ordered overseas.

Miss Campbell, who is said to be the most beautiful girl in Louisville, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wheeler Campbell.

Senator James D. Phelan, who has been in his home in California since Congress first adjourned, is expected back in Washington on August 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade H. Ellis were hosts at dinner last evening in honor of their house guest, Mrs. K. T. Goodloe, of Pensacola, Fla.

Lieut. Jean J. Labat, of the French military mission, is spending a short vacation in Bar Harbor. He stopped in New York en route for a short stay.

James Laughlin Phillips, of Washington, is in New York for a short visit and is stopping at the Biltmore Hotel.

Quiet Home Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Cornell Lewis, daughter of Mrs. Henry Trumbull Stanciliff, and John Leslie Prather, U. S. A., of Chicago, Ill., was quietly solemnized in the presence of her family and a few intimate friends, by the Rev. William Tayloe Snyder, at the Church of the Incarnation, at 8 o'clock on Saturday evening, August 3.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Capt. Henry Trumbull Stanciliff, U. S. R. C., looked charming in a gown of midnight blue charmeuse, wearing a black hat and corsage of orchids and Lady Huntington roses. She was attended by Mrs. Winfield Harrison Scott as matron of honor and Miss Grace Jeannette Simpson as maid of honor. Paul H. Rockaway, U. S. A., of Port Wayne, Ind., acted as best man for Mr. Prather. Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a short trip and upon their return to Washington will be at home at the Seville, 2129 Eighteenth street northwest.

New York Girl Married Here.

Announcement is made by Mrs. Margaret Fram, of New York, of the marriage of her daughter, Miss Helen Cecilia Fram, and Ensign Kenneth W. Brown, U. S. N. R. F., son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Brown, of Washington. The wedding took place on Saturday in Washington, the Rev. John B. Frazier, a naval chaplain, officiating.

Mrs. R. A. MacRobert, of Govana, Md., announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Isabel C. Brackenridge, to Dr. Ernest S. Hendry, of Washington. The ceremony was performed at the Church of the Heavenly Rest, New York, on Wednesday, July 24. Miss Brackenridge is the daughter of the late Archibald Brackenridge and granddaughter of W. D. Brackenridge, a well-known horticulturist and botanist.

In 1923 there'll be just two kinds of people. Those who DID invest their savings in War Savings Stamps, and those who DIDN'T. To which class are YOU going to belong?

S. Kann Sons Co.

"THE BUSY CORNER" PENNA. AVE. AT 8 TH. ST.

Open: 9:15 A. M. to 6 P. M.

SMART SUMMER DRESSES OF GINGHAM

—In simple, but chic models, which will be suitable for street wear as well as for house and garden dresses.

Dresses at $3.95

—Are all of gingham, stripes, plaids and checks, trimmed with contrasting colors; others with white collars and cuffs. One-piece, well made, and dresses that will answer for wear to market, on the street, and especially desirable styles for house wear.

Dresses at $4.95

—They are suitable to wear at home, in the garden, or on the street, or even to office. —We have them in both light and dark effects, but the majority are dark and serviceable. —They are made up in fetching styles with a certain easy grace about them that is really fascinating.

—The gingham, especially in the fine checked effects, are made up in "Billie Burke" models, daintily smocked and finished with white collar and cuffs; others are trimmed with white pique collar and cuffs. —The voiles are in checked patterns, rose and green, green and tan, etc., with ruffle-trimmed organdy collars and cuffs, tucked skirt and sash of self-material. —A special purchase has enabled us to give them to you very much under price. —All sizes to select from.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Have You Corsets To Be Repaired or Altered?

—We now have an expert repairer to do this work and are ready to take your orders and give them our best attention. Thorough and satisfactory work. —Let us have your orders early, before the fall rush begins.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Home 'Book of FASHIONS

Illustrating the Autumn Styles in

Home Journal Patterns

Has arrived and is on sale at the pattern counter. Price, including any 15c . . . 25c

The Free Sheet, "Good Dressing," is also here. Ask for a copy.

The Ladies' Home Journal for August now on sale at Pattern Counter. This is another Patriotic Picture Number.

Kann's, Street Floor.

Pictorial Review Patterns

And the August Free Fashion Sheet Have Arrived

Patterns from 10c to 25c

Ask for the Free Sheet at the Pattern Counter, Street Floor.

SATIN FINISHED COTTON WASH SKIRTS

—Made of a high-lustered material that really does resemble a satin. All white, and made up in many smart styles.

—Some of them are gathered all around, some gathered in the back only and flat in front. Some with wide belts, others narrower belts; many are pocket trimmed.

—Nearly all sizes in the lot. —We have marked them down to close out the lot.

—Were up to $6.95, to close tomorrow at—

$4.95

Kann's—Second Floor.

A NEW LOT OF BATH-ROBES JUST RECEIVED

—Ready for the vacationist who wants one to take along on the summer trip. All of excellent quality material.

—Handsome dark-colored robes, in rich colorings, and Persian or Oriental patterns, trimmed around collar with satin ribbon, two-toned girdle with tassels; have pocket; finished with satin-covered buttons to match collar trimming at $5.00

—Bathrobes in light pastel colors, collarless style, trimmed with satin around neck and on sleeves, has cord girdle; is finished with pocket.

—Also bath robes in a two-toned material, one color design on the background of another color. Large sailor collar back, with shawl collar front, trimmed on collar, on pocket and down front with satin ribbon, finished with frogs and satin-covered buttons.

—Choice either style at $6.50

Kann's—Second Floor.

Washington's Most

Exclusive Fur Store

PAY IN NOVEMBER FOR FURS YOU BUY NOW AT SPECIAL AUGUST PRICES

Save 30% to 40% on Your Furs

THESE FURS—the coats, sets, and pieces—are made up to conform with the styles that will be in vogue during the coming fall and winter. They are developed in our own factory from the finest pelts we have had in many years.

Inasmuch as we buy our furs from the trappers and traders in the far North, have them shipped direct to Washington, and made up in our own workrooms, our prices are anywhere from 30 to 40 per cent less than the majority of prices offered in various sales about town.

THE SAKS FUR CO.

Manufacturers Who Retail at Wholesale Prices

1212 F Street